Buy Economically

Economy in supplying your table is a duty which every housewife owes to herself and family in these times of constantly increasing household expense. To make economy practical let us figure with you on all cuts of untrimmed meat. It's not necessary to buy half a hog or a quarter of beef to get the right price; just name the cut you want and we will name a price that will save you money. Remember that our meats are all carefully selected and that you need have no doubt of their wholesomeness. We will be glad to quote you prices on anything in the provision line—a barrel of flour, a bag of sugar, box of soap, canned goods by the case.

Call us often and we will keep you posted on latest provision prices.

We are in the market for livestock, poultry, eggs and butter.

A saloonkeeper of Philadelphia recently displayed as part of a window exhibit five small flags, each in an empty whisky bottle, says the Union Signal. Such use of the flags aroused instant indignation by passersby. "There is absolutely no connection between the American flag and the whisky bottle," remarked one citizen. "If the saloonkeeper had put models of the poorhouse and the penitentiary in the window beside his booze he would have been nearer the point."

ALMA DEFEATED.

High Schoolers Lost to the Fast Arthur Hill Eleven.

Coach Kimball's Alma high school football team took its second defeat of the present football season Saturday, when, fighting hard, the eleven went down before the heavy and fast Arthur Hill gridders at Saginaw to the tune of 17 to 0.

Kimball's youngsters put up a great scrap, better than the score indicates, and several times blocked seemingly sure touchdowns. At times during the game the Hillites walked down the field with the Orange and Black until within the shadow of the Alma goal, but time and again Alma repelled these attacks and turned back the Saginaw eleven. One of the Saginaw touchdowns came immediately after one of these attacks had failed. Alma started to punt out, but Stuckey blocked the punt and fell on the ball behind the goal for a touchdown.

In the second quarter Alma seemingly had a touchdown, but the official ruled differently and called the ball back and penalized Alma. Alma had punted to the Hillites, and Hopkins tore down the field, and just as the ball was settling in Hillites' arms he smashed into him. Boyd grabbed the leather, fumbled by the Hillite, and raced to the Alma goal over fifty yards away.

The loss of this touchdown and the penalty handed the Alma team took out some pep from them, and the Hillites were masters of the situation and had Alma going. Early in the third quarter G. Schemm for the second time attempted a drop-kick and placed the ball between the uprights. This three points was quickly added to when Stuckey dropped on the blocked Alma punt behind the Alma goal. In the fourth quarter the one earned touchdown came on good football, the ball being taken over by Olsen.

Arthur Hill had the strongest team of the season against Alma. Stuckey, the veteran end, was playing for the first time this season and Olsen was in the line-up for the first time in four weeks. Both men are stars and played the heavy part for the Hillites in their victory.

HARD GAME.

Albion Has Best Team in Years for Alma Game Here Saturday.

When the Maroon and Cream stacks up against Albion college Saturday she will meet one of the best that Albion college has had in years, a team without question superior to the one with which Albion won the championship two years ago, after Albion tied at 7 and 7.

Coach Kennedy is reported to already have visions of a victory over the heavy and fast Alma college eleven, and it is certain on her hands if she is to win this important Michigan intercollegiate bout from the Methodists. Albion has a number of good veterans back this year, and luckily secured a bunch of new men of high class from her freshman class. She is strong, to say the least.

The Alma fans have high hopes for a victory, because of the good showing of the Maroon and Cream this year, but are worried for fear that the team may have gone back through being idle last Saturday, when it should have been playing. They are looking forward to a hard game, however, even though the Alma team comes out on the top of the heap.

This will be the last Michigan intercollegiate football game on the home field this year, the rest, with Olivet and Kalamazoo, being billed away from home, and it promises to be a game well worth the viewing. The game will be called at 2:30 p. m.

Next week Alma meets the Michigan Normal college eleven on the local field, but this game will not be an M. I. A. A. championship bout.

IF YOU never have to walk back and forth between the stove and ironing board to change irons you eliminate fifty per cent of the work. This means more time for other duties or recreation.

Merely screw in a plug and turn the switch, you get heat from your socket and its all where you want it.

The Cinderella Iron

is a thoroughly practical electric iron designed for strict utility. The shape of the face and the heating element is the same as used on higher-priced Westinghouse electric irons. Metal parts have a serviceable dull-nickel finish. The heating element is guaranteed forever. The cord is permanently attached to the iron, a separable plug is supplied on the other end. A spring on the cord where it leaves the iron prevents sharp turns and resultant breakage of wires.
